Things you should know

NEW SYSTEM RELIABILITY CHARGE...
The California Public Utilities Commission has authorized the New System Generation Charge (NSGC) for recovery of costs associated with increased system reliability during times of peak demand. This charge applies to all customers in SCE territory who will benefit from increased system reliability, whether the customer receives energy from SCE or some other supplier. The new charge will appear on your bill every month.

NEW SYSTEM RELIABILITY CHARGE...

The California Public Utilities Commission has authorized the New System Generation Charge (NSGC) for recovery of costs associated with increased system reliability during times of peak demand. This charge applies to all customers in SCE territory who will benefit from increased system reliability, whether the customer receives energy from SCE or some other supplier. The new charge will appear on your bill every month.
