BACKGROUND INFORMATION: The Special Districts Department operates County Service Area 70-L in Pinon Hills. This District provides water service to the residents of this region. The Special Districts Department, through a study conducted in March 2000 has determined that additional water well capacity is required for system growth and increased water production capacity.

Per California and Federal Environmental Regulations, the project requires compliance with the CEQA environmental review process. County Service Area 70-L, retained Tom Dodson and Associates, by purchase order at a cost of $5,000, to conduct an initial environmental study and review. This study was submitted to the State and Clerk of the Board on May 22, 2000, for public and government review and comment period. That period concluded June 30, 2000. No comments were received.

Following the thirty-day review period of the State Clearinghouse, Special Districts will solicit bids from Contractors for drilling a 1,100 foot deep test hole for hydrological surveys and samplings. Upon completion of the test hole, and hydrological study, a report will be issued establishing a water production rate for the proposed well. A RFQ for a “Design & Build” will be issued to construct the well and booster station facility.
