Gov. Brown To Appear At AV-EK Empire Water Banquet Saturday

Baccalauraeate Sunday for 400 A.V. Seniors

Baccalaureate in a traditional church service will be held Sunday morning for about 400 Antelope Valley High School seniors, the Reverend J. J. Benike, of the Antelope Valley Methodist Church, will do the invitational sermon. At the same service, the choir will sing a selection from the Rev. Dr. Dale Griswold. The senior choir will perform a selection of several hymns.

State Acts To Improve A.V. Roads

A long awaited news concern is the new $100 million state-imposed bond to improve A.V. roads, which was approved by the state legislature. The bond will be used to improve state highways in the Antelope Valley area. The bond will also be used to improve local roads, which are currently in poor condition.

Nominations Still Open

Nominations for awards are still open for outstanding community service. The awards will be presented at a later date. The awards are open to all residents of the Antelope Valley.

Final Rites Held for B. P. Glenn

Funeral services for Byron Price Glenn, former Lancaster High School principal, were held at the Community Church of Lancaster. The service was attended by many friends and colleagues of Glenn.

Little Rock Chamber Meets

The Little Rock Chamber of Commerce met on Friday to discuss the future of the Chamber and its plans for the coming year.

Industrial Council To Meet

The Antelope Valley Chamber of Commerce will meet on Monday to discuss the future of the Chamber and its plans for the coming year.

Action to Solve Water Problem Moves Ahead in State Capitol

Legislation was introduced in the State Capitol to address the water problem in the Antelope Valley. The legislation outlines a plan to provide more water to the region and improve water quality.

Byron Price Glenn

Funeral services for Byron Price Glenn, former Lancaster High School principal, were held at the Community Church of Lancaster. The service was attended by many friends and colleagues of Glenn.

Little Rock Chamber Meets

The Little Rock Chamber of Commerce met on Friday to discuss the future of the Chamber and its plans for the coming year.

Industrial Council To Meet

The Antelope Valley Chamber of Commerce will meet on Monday to discuss the future of the Chamber and its plans for the coming year.

Action to Solve Water Problem Moves Ahead in State Capitol

Legislation was introduced in the State Capitol to address the water problem in the Antelope Valley. The legislation outlines a plan to provide more water to the region and improve water quality.