Court 2.551(e) (4) prohibits any reference to "the contents of any materials that have been sealed in anything that is subsequently filed."

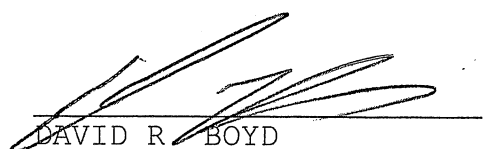

4. Because the reasons for the People's subpoena duces tecum make reference to the defendant's legal argument in their motion, it appears to contain "the contents of any materials that have been sealed"

5. This application for the sealing of the enclosed reasons for the People's subpoena duces tecum is necessary in order to comply with California Rule of Court 2.551(e) (4).

6. The People will not seek an order to seal the reasons for the subpoena duces tecum on the date of the hearing as it is the People's legal opinion that the information does not satisfy the requirements of California Rule of Court 2.550(d) for sealing.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.
