All initial applications for the authorization of ancillary defense expenses shall be submitted by ex parte motion to the clerk of the Criminal Division Supervising Judge. If a self-represented defendant has not suggested a particular investigator, the Court will select one from the rotational investigator list. The maximum hourly billing rates, as well as the maximum initial authorizations, for all investigators and legal runners shall be set by the Presiding Judge of the Superior Court.  - a. The relevance and materiality of the witness's proposed testimony;
 - b. An explanation why a telephone interview or an interview conducted through the Internet or other forms of electronic communication would not suffice instead of a face to face interview.
 - c. An explanation why it would not be practical to utilize the services of an investigator in the area where the witness lives to conduct the interview;
 - d. Whether it would be feasible to fly the witness to the San Jose airport for an interview, with a return flight the same day, to avoid the expense of overnight travel for the investigator; and

If the defense retains an expert from outside the Bay Area, the declaration shall explain in detail why local experts could not be employed to provide similar services. Expenses for supplemental reports by experts or investigators may not be paid by the Court without prior Court approval.

Are you eligible for the 50% amnesty reduction?

After you submit this amnesty request, if the court, county, or collecting agency discovers that you are not eligible for amnesty because you have 1 or more outstanding warrants or owe victim restitution in this county, you will receive written notice within 10 business days that your request is being suspended. You will then have 20 business days from the date on the notice to bring to the court, county, or collecting agency written proof that the outstanding warrant(s) and/or victim restitution issues have been fixed. If you do not respond to the notice, then on the 21st business day after the date of the notice, or earlier if your proof does not show that you are eligible for amnesty, your amnesty request will be retroactively cancelled and your previously reduced court-ordered amounts will be restored, and any amounts you paid will be credited toward your revised outstanding debt. You will receive the notice(s) described above at the address you provided on page one of this request.

Are you eligible for the 80% amnesty reduction?

After you submit this amnesty request, if the court, county, or collecting agency discovers that you are not eligible for the 80 percent reduction in bail, fines, and/or fees because you do not receive public assistance as listed or because your household income is too high, you will receive written notice within 10 business days that your amnesty discount will be cancelled. You will then have 20 business days from the date on the notice to bring to the court, county, or collecting agency written proof that you do receive the specified public assistance or that your income is at or below 125 percent of the federal poverty rate for your household. If your written proof shows that you are eligible, your court-ordered amount will be revised to 20 percent of the amount owed. If you do not respond to the notice, then on the 21st business day from the date on the notice, or earlier if your proof does not show that you are eligible for the 80 percent discount, the agency will cancel the discount and the full amount will be imposed, and any amounts you paid will be credited toward your revised outstanding debt. You will receive the notice(s) described above at the address you provided on page one of this request.

If you are eligible for either amnesty program:

A one-time $50.00 administrative fee is due with your first payment. And, if you choose installment payments, the minimum payment amount is $25.00. Payment in full or the first installment payment must be received by the Court no later than March 31, 2017. Your driver's license will not be reinstated for 20 days if you pay by check.
