Santa Clara County Superior Court Issues Interim Order to Extend Emergency Bail Schedule

On June 10, 2020, the Judicial Council of California approved Circulating Order 20-11, which repealed the statewide Emergency Bail Schedule as of June 20, 2020.

On Thursday, June 18, 2020, Presiding Judge Deborah A. Ryan issued an interim order setting the bail schedule for Santa Clara County Superior Court effective June 20, 2020. This schedule is applied to all accused persons arrested and in pretrial custody, and to all accused persons held in pretrial custody, effective June 20, 2020, and until a bail schedule is approved by the judges of the Santa Clara County Superior Court.

Bail for all misdemeanor and felony offenses must be set at $0, except for the specified offenses indicated within the interim order.

The Court retains the discretion to deny bail, to set a higher bail for any offense, including those with a bail of $0, and/or to order conditions of release deemed appropriate for any offense. Bail setting is at the discretion of the judicial officer reviewing the case with due consideration of public safety and health concerns.
