Online Traffic Portal And Courtesy Notices Are Active

The Superior Court has corrected and resolved an issue with the traffic court courtesy notices

SAN JOSÉ, California (April 9, 2019): The Santa Clara Superior Court has addressed and corrected an issue with traffic court courtesy notices. The online traffic portal is accepting payments and courtesy notices are being generated.

For anyone who has received a citation recently, you can check our Traffic Case Info website (<https://portal.scscourt.org/traffic>) to confirm that your citation is in the Court's system. You will receive a courtesy notice 45 - 60 days after you get your citation (ticket). This notice will inform you about your options. If you do not get a courtesy notice by the date written at the bottom of your ticket, you must contact the court by phone, in person, or by mail.
